

Mrs. Neva M. Zigler, 78

Mrs. Neva M. Zigler, 78, of Brooklyn, died Thursday, April 15, 2004, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Services were held at the Grace United Methodist Church, with the Rev. David Rogula officiating. Interment was in the Koszta Cemetery.

The casket bearers were Elmer Anderson, Kenny Hiner, Derrick Hiner, George Hiner, Jake Hiner and Jerry Hiner.

A memorial fund has been established.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services was in charge of the arrangements.

Neva Mae Hiner Zigler, daughter of George Howard and Mae Alice (Robey) Hiner, was born May 26, 1925, in Brooklyn. She received her education in a rural school, and she graduated from Brooklyn schools in 1942.

On May 22, 1943, she married Lyle James Zigler of Belle Plaine, at the Grace United Methodist Church parsonage in Brooklyn. Two sons — Lyle James Jr. and James George — were born to this union.

Mrs. Zigler was employed as a secretary at Brooklyn Mutual Telephone Company from March 23, 1971, to her retirement on July 1, 1993. She was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church and the Francis Gallagher American Legion Post no. 294 Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Lyle; one son, Lyle James Jr.; three brothers, Jacob Henry Hiner, Howard George Hiner and Kenneth Eugene Hiner; and five sisters, Mary Luella Pierce, Dora Lavina Hiner, Mildred Beatrice Hiner, Norma Arlene Michael and Lola Ferne Delk.

She is survived by her son, James Zigler, and his wife, Vicky, of Brooklyn; two grandchildren, James George Zigler Jr. and Angela Slaymaker and her husband, Jer; two great-grandchildren, Justin Lee Slaymaker and Ashlyn Cheyenne Slaymaker; one brother, Harold Hiner of Brooklyn; a sister, Gladys Wheeler of Grinnell; and many nieces and nephews.

BC APRIL 21, 2004