Harold Beyer

Harold Beyer, 89, of Sully, died Saturday, Dec. 12, 2009, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

A funeral service is planned for Wednesday, Dec. 16, at the Christian Reformed Church in Sully with the Rev. Phil Kok and the Dr. Rev. Doug Smiley presiding. Friends may call after 3 p.m. at the Christian Reformed Church, and the family will greet friends from 5 to 7 p.m. Burial will be at the Sully Cemetery. The Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory in Newton is handling the arrangements.

Memorials may be made to Grinnell Regional Hospice or the Sully Reformed Church and left at the church on the days of the visitation or service.

Harold, the son of Edward and Josie DeZwarte Beyer, was born Jan. 6, 1920, in rural Marion County north of Pella and most of his childhood was spent in the Mt. Zion area north of Newton. On Jan. 6, 1947, he married Grace Fopma at her parents' home north of Kellogg and they lived most of their married life on a farm south of Searsboro. The couple moved to Sully in 1984. He farmed for many years, and also worked at the elevator in Searsboro and later at the elevator in Lynnville.

He was a member of the Sully Christian Reformed Church, where he delivered bulletins to the elderly for many years and also helped out with sew days. He was past president of the Sully Senior Citizens and also a past 4-H club leader.

He enjoyed doing volunteer auctioneering for many events at the Lynnville-Sully school and also with the Ruth Circle at his church. He loved to garden and gave much of what he planted to neighbors and friends, and also loved to visit with people wherever he was.

He is survived by his wife Grace Beyer of Sully; three sons, Melvin Beyer of Russellville, Ark., Dwight Beyer of Lynnville and Russell Beyer of Pella; seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren; as well as many neices and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, Lester Beyer, twin brother Harris Beyer and Harold, in infancy; a sister, Luella Beyer; and a grandson, Scott Beyer.
