6:4-R 12-17-09

Nancy Bosma, 52, died Monday Dec. 14, 2009, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Monday, Dec. 21, at Cornerstone Bible Fellowship in Newton. The family will greet friends prior to the service from 10 to 11 a.m. and again following the service. Memorials may be designated to Newton Dollars for Scholars, Hospice of Jasper County or Cornerstone Bible Fellowship and may be left at the church or at Pence-Reese Funeral Home.

The daughter of Donald Charles and Shirley Williams Nebergall, she was born May 24, 1957, in Oskaloosa and attended Grinnell schools before moving to Cedar Rapids where she graduated from Cedar Rapids Kennedy with the class of 1975. She attended Iowa State University; completed her bachelors degree in education in 1993 from Buena Vista University; and received her masters degree in education from Viterbo University in LaCrosse, Wisc., in 2000.

She married Scott Bosma at the Community Chapel in Lakota, Iowa, on July 30, 1977. Nancy worked for Newton Manufacturing in customer service from 1979 to 1983, and was currently working for the Newton Community Schools as a fourth-grade teacher at Thomas Jefferson. She was a member of Cornerstone Bible Fellowship.

She is survived by her husband, Scott Bosma of Newton; her daughter, Dr. Jamie Bosma of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.; her son, Bradley Bosma of Chicago, Ill.; her parents, Donald and Shirley Nebergall of Cedar Rapids; her brother, Dr. Robert Nebergall of Tulsa, Okla.; and many other family, friends and students.

Nancy was preceded in death by her grandparents, David and Audrey Williams and Ellis and Hilda Nebergall.
