

She was united in marriage with Lynn L. Disney on June 26, 1955 in Radcliffe. She was an elementary school teacher, first in Keswick, then in Ainsworth and finally in Maquoketa. She also had owned and operated Disney's Shoe Barn in Maquoketa for seven years.

She was an active member of First United Methodist Church in Maquoketa which she had served as treasurer and as president of the Miriam Circle. She was a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and an avid basketball fan.

She is survived by her husband Lynn Disney of Maquoketa; her son and daughter, Brian Disney of State Center and Rhonda Gohlman of Grinnell; four grandchildren, and her brother David Topp of Radcliffe. She was preceded in death by her parents; one brother Richard, and her sister Bernice.

Norma J. Disney

Norma J. Disney, 75, of Maquoketa died Thursday, May 13, at Jackson County Regional Health Center in Maquoketa.

A celebration of her life was held Tuesday, May 18, at First United Methodist Church in Maquoketa with the Rev. Dr. Jeff Dadisman officiating. Burial was in Mount Hope Cemetery, Maquoketa. A memorial fund has been established. Carson & Son Funeral and Cremation Services in Maquoketa was in charge of arrangements.

She was born Dec. 2, 1934, in Radcliffe, the daughter of Ben and Clara Kuhfus Topp, and was a graduate of Radcliffe High School where she was an all-state basketball player. She earned a two-year business degree from Iowa Wesleyan College where she also played basketball, then a teaching certificate from the University of Iowa in Iowa City.