

Janice K. Fuller, 57

Janice K. Fuller, 57, of Oskaloosa, died Tuesday, Jan. 19, 2010, at the Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

She was born Nov. 23, 1952, at Guttenburg, the daughter of Otto James and Violet May Johnson Groth. She graduated from the Central Community High School with the class of 1971. On Oct. 27, 1973, Janice was united in marriage to Joseph Jay Fuller at Manchester. Janice worked as a school photographer for Life Touch, a position she enjoyed very much for the past 22 years. She was forced to retire due to ill health in the middle of 2009. She was a member of the Calvary Bible Church in Oskaloosa. Janice truly enjoyed spending time with her husband, children, and grandchildren. She also enjoyed traveling with her husband. Her greatest loves in life were the Lord and her family.

Her family includes her husband of over 36 years, Joseph Fuller of Oskaloosa; her mother-in-law, Betty Fuller; a daughter and her husband, Chastity Lynn and Rock Miller of St. Peters, Mo.; two sons and their wives, Shawn Joseph and Jessica Fuller of Prairie City, and Shannon Jay and Melissa Fuller of Oskaloosa; eight grandchildren, Myriah Miller, Alexis Fuller, Makenna Miller, Kylie Fuller, Matalya Miller, Clayton Fuller, Brayden Fuller, and Aliyah Fuller; three sisters, Karen (and Bob) Inglis of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Linda Bond in Iowa, Colleen (and Rodney) Johnson of Manchester; 4 brothers, Robert (and Jane) Groth of Garber, Roger (and Connie) Groth of Manchester, Jim Groth in Iowa, and Wayne (and Billie) Groth in Washington state.

Janice was preceded in death by her parents; her father-in-law, Roger W. Fuller; two nephews, Tracy and Kevin Barnhart; and a niece, Michelle Barnhart.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Jan. 23, 2010, at 1 p.m. in the Bates Funeral Chapel in Oskaloosa with the Rev. Dr. Doug Smiley officiating. Burial was in the Union Mills Cemetery east of New Sharon. The Bates Funeral Chapel were in charge of the arrangements.
