Brandi Klos, 19

Brandi Klos, 19, of Montezuma, passed away Tuesday, Sept. 8, 2009, at the Henry County Health Center in Mt. Pleasant after her eleven month, courageous battle with cancer. Funeral services were held Sunday, Sept. 13, at 2:30 p.m., at the Holland-Coble Funeral Home in Montezuma. Interment was in the Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Brandi Klos Memorial Fund. Friends may send condolences or sign the online guestbook at hollandcoblefunerathome.com. Holland-Coble Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Brandi Mae Klos, daughter of John and Brenda (Pfeiffer) Klos, was born on Aug. 25, 1990, in Burlington. Brandi graduated from Montezuma High School in May of 2008. She has three sisters, Cheyenne, 15; and twin sisters, Lauren and Carmen, 6. Brandi attended Marshalltown Community College in Marshalltown. She worked at the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Montezuma as a CNA. Brandi absolutely loved her job. She had a passion for helping others. She just had that quality of life about her. Brandi enjoyed going out with her friends and attending concerts. Brandi was always playing around with her camera, taking pictures of herself and friends. She loved to collect Hello Kitty memorabilia. She was an avid reader and enjoyed knitting with her grandmother.

Her memory is honored by her parents, John and Brenda Klos of Montezuma; three sisters, Cheyenne, Lauren and Carmen Klos, all of Montezuma; her grandparents, Marvin and Shirley Klos, and Judith Pfeiffer, all of New London; her great-grandma, Lola Cheers of Afton; her best friends, Nicky Williams of Montezuma, and Brandy Virchow of Lynnville; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Brandi was preceded in death by her grandpa, William "Bill" Pfeiffer.
