Maxine Beatrice Wolf McLain was born on March 28, 1912, near Victor, the daughter of Cleveland and Blanche McAdams Mohr. She attended school in Guernsey and was a 1930 graduate of Deep River High School. On Sept. 26, 1932, she was united in marriage to Gilbert "GYP" Wolf in Lancaster, Mo. To this union, three children were born, Kenneth, Newell and Carolyn. The couple farmed the Deep River and Montezuma areas for several years. They later moved to Monroe, where her husband worked as a custodian until his retirement in 1977. After the death of her husband in 1986, Maxine married Forrest W. McLain of Montezuma. She was a member of the Montezuma United Methodist Church and served with the Montezuma United Methodist Women. Maxine was a devoted wife, loving mother and proud grandmother.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands, Gilbert "GYP" Wolf and Forrest W. McLain; an infant daughter, Carolyn Wolf; a brother, Phillip Mohr; four sisters, Ellna Ochs, Marjory Wiedow, Bernice Oates and Frances Mullen.

She is survived by two sons, Kenneth (Mickey) Wolf of Shelley, Mont., and Newell (Jane) Wolf of Newton; two daughters, Beverly (Don) Gray of Montezuma and Marlene Gwin of Sigourney. Maxine was also blessed with seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.
