

Marguerite Hagen Slavin

Marguerite Hagen Slavin, 94, died Oct. 13, 2009, in Muncie, Ind. Arrangements are being handled by Meeks Mortuary in Muncie.

A graveside service was held at the Muncie Mausoleum on Oct. 17.

Marguerite grew up in Grinnell and graduated with the class of 1932. She attended the University of Iowa where she met her husband, Dr. C.M. Slavin. During World War II, Dr. Slavin served as a Colonel in the U.S. Army. Following the war, they moved to Muncie where he practiced dentistry.

They couple had two sons who followed in their father's footsteps as dentists with him. Marguerite was a devoted mother and wife, but also active in civic and social affairs. She chaired many committees and organizations in Muncie, and was also an avid bridge player.

She is survived by one son, Dr. Charles II; six grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren; and one brother, Jerry Hagen of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her son Steve; her parents; her brother Willard Hagen; and sister Lorraine Carlisle.

B. H-R 10-29-09