Marjorie A. Smothers, 92

Marjorie A. Smothers, age 92, of Davenport, formerly of Cedar Rapids and Brooklyn, passed away peacefully at her residence on Monday, March 8, 2010. Funeral services were held Saturday, March 13, at the Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, with the Rev. John Dodds officiating. Burial was at the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Survivors include her son, Tom (Sally) Smothers; three grandchildren, Mike (Jeniffer) Smothers, Amy (Kenny) Logan, and Jennifer Smothers; and four great-grandchildren, Alyssa, Madison, Brayden and Reagan. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Nancy; granddaughter, Sarah; three brothers, Jack, James and Jerold Newman; and two sisters, Marguerette Newman and May Armstrong.

Marjorie Arlene Newman was born July 26, 1917, in Brooklyn, the daughter of John and Nora Carlton Newman. She was united in marriage to Harold E. Smothers on May 2, 1937. He preceded her in death on Aug. 9, 1990. Marjorie loved to visit with her family and in recent years enjoyed traveling the country with her son and daughter-in-law in their motor home.
