

Lenore Barnes

Lenore Barnes, 96, of Bettendorf, formerly of Malcom, died Wednesday, Aug. 18, 2010, at Clarissa C. Cook Hospice in Bettendorf.

A funeral service was held Monday, Aug. 23, at First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom with burial in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

Memorials may be made to First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom or First Presbyterian Church in Davenport.

Lenore Barnes

Lenore Barnes, 96, of Bettendorf, formerly of Malcom, died Wednesday, Aug. 18, 2010, at Clarissa C. Cook Hospice House in Bettendorf.

A funeral service was held Monday, Aug. 23, at First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom with burial following in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Memorials may be made to First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom or First Presbyterian Church in Davenport.

She was born July 18, 1914, on her family's farm north of Montezuma, the daughter of Ralph E. and Margaret Henry McFerren, and was a 1930 graduate of Montezuma High School.

On Dec. 20, 1933, she was united in marriage with Edward Duffus Barnes at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. They made their home in Malcom and she was employed in the Poweshiek County Treasurer's office and later at Grinnell College in the office of registrar. She also gave piano lessons in Malcom for many years.

She moved to the Masonic Village in Bettendorf in 1998 to be nearer to her children. In 2008 she moved to The Fountains Assisted Living in Bettendorf.

She was a member of First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom for over 50 years, serving as trustee and elder. As a resident of Bettendorf, she was an associate member of First Presbyterian Church in Davenport. She also was very interested in natural habitat and had planted a three-acre tree site on her family's farm.

She is survived by her daughter and son, Jeanne M. Sherwood of Davenport and Jack E. Barnes of Bettendorf; four grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Edward on Jan. 2, 1991; and two brothers, Ernest and Edgar McFerren.

Scratch

Lenore Barnes, 96

Lenore Barnes, 96, of Bettendorf and formerly of Malcom, died Aug. 18, 2010, at Clarissa C. Cook Hospice House in Bettendorf.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m., Monday, Aug. 23, at the First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom with the the Rev. John Reynolds officiating. Organist was Pam Cronbaugh and Denise Baustian played the hand bells.

Pall Bearers were Craig Barnes, Steve and Lisa Sherwood, Stan Sherwood and Julie Ralston Aoki, and Stacie and Nathan Heidegger. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery in Malcom.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom or the First Presbyterian Church in Davenport.

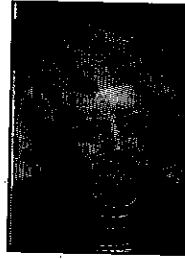

Lenore was born July 18, 1914, on the family farm north of Montezuma, the daughter of Ralph E. and Margaret Henry McFerren. She graduated from Montezuma High School in 1930.

On Dec. 20, 1933, she was united in marriage to Edward Duffus Barnes, at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. The couple made their home in Malcom and she was employed in the Poweshiek County Treasurer's Office, and later, at Grinnell College in the Office of the Registrar. She also gave piano lessons in Malcom for many years. She moved to the Masonic Village in Bettendorf in 1998, to be nearer her children. In 2008, she moved to The Fountains Assisted Living in Bettendorf.

Lenore was a faithful member of the First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom for over 50 years, where she served as trustee and elder. While living in Bettendorf, she was an associate member of the First Presbyterian Church in Davenport. She loved music, reading, and was very interested in nature and conservation. She was very interested in nature habitat and planted a three acre tree site on her family farm.

Survivors include her two children, Jeanne M. (Scott) Sherwood of Davenport, and Jack E. (Caroline) Barnes of Bettendorf; four grandchildren, Steven N. (Lisa) Sherwood, Stan T. (Julie Ralston Aoki) Sherwood, Stacie A. (Nathan) Heidegger, and Craig M. Barnes; and seven great-grandchildren, Luke, Irina, Ben, Mio, Amaya, Jonathan, and Timothy.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Edward, on Jan. 2, 1991; and two brothers, Ernest and Edgar McFerren.

91-58-8
PCH
8224