

ANN MARIE BURRY

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Feb. 1, at 11 a.m. at St. Bridget Catholic Church for Ann Marie Burry, age 93, of Victor. Miss Burry died on Wednesday, Jan. 29, 1986 at her home in Victor.

Officiating at the funeral service was The Rev. Eugene Hoenig, pastor of St. Bridget Catholic Church.

The Lector was Donald Refer, of Victor, and altar boys were Chris DeSmet and Nick Nace, both of Victor. The organist was Mrs. William Lynch.

Concluding services and burial were held at Calvary Cemetery with Rusty Van Waus, Bill Van Waus, David Van Waus, John Van Waus, John Gryp and James De Smet, serving as casket bearers.

The parish rosary was held on Friday evening, at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home.

Ann Marie Burry was born July 9, 1892 at Victor, Iowa. She was the daughter of August and Caroline (Maulik) Burry.

She attended and graduated from the Sacred Heart Academy, in Cedar Rapids, in 1910. She lived in Davenport for several years before returning to Victor to care for her father. She worked as a telephone switch board operator and seamstress for many years in the Victor community.

For the past 63 years Ann had made her home with her sister, Frances DeSmet.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters — Mary Nace and Emma McGarry, and four brothers — John, August, Joseph and Albert.

Ann is survived by her sister, Frances, and many nieces and nephews.
