

Lillian M. McClure, 90

Lillian M. McClure, age 90, of Quinlan, Texas, formerly of Brooklyn, died June 6, 2010, at her home in Texas. Memorial services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 21, at the Presbyterian church in Malcom, with the Rev. John Reynolds, Jr. officiating. Inurnment will be in Kent Cemetery, rural Brooklyn. A memorial fund has been established. Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, is handling local arrangements.

Lillian is survived by her son, Jim Bacon; and a daughter, Bonnie Wiley, both of Quinlan, Texas; five grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and a great-great-granddaughter. Also surviving are two brothers, Dean and Dale Lippencott (Helen) of Brooklyn; two sisters, Virginia of Iowa City and Verna Mae of Coggon.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Howard, John, Charlie and Russell Lippencott; four sisters, Evelyn and Florence and two sisters in infancy.

Lillian was born Nov. 22, 1919, in Brooklyn, the daughter of Ray and Agnus Douglas Lippencott. She was raised and educated in Iowa. Lillian was employed at Amana Refrigeration as a spot welder, retiring after 23 years. She was a member of the Presbyterian church in Malcom and a member of Eastern Star. She was a seamstress and quilter and also enjoyed crocheting. She enjoyed her gardening, flower beds and even the kitchen chores. Her favorite hymn was "Trust and Obey" and she sang it often as she cleaned and did chores. The loves of Lillian's life were her grandchildren.

Online condolences may be extended to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.

PCC 9-22-10