

PCCR 10-13-10

Lois Shine, 85

Lois Shine, 85, of Victor, died on Friday, Oct. 8, 2010, at Brooklyn Estate.

A funeral service was held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, Oct. 12, at the New Covenant-United Methodist Church in Victor with Pastor Jim Davis officiating. Organist was Marna Mohr and vocalist was Kato Wauters. Casket Bearers were Aaron and Blaine Wauters, Christopher Shine, Chad Williams, Robert Gasper, Tim Heishman, Alan Mohr and Nick Krapfl. Honorary Bearers were Dakota and Kayden Heishman, Leighton and William Wauters, Easton and Tyson Mohr, Hayden Gasper and Carson Williams. Flower Bearers were Angela Heishman, Carrie Williams, Sara Mohr, Carrie Ann Krapfl and Amanda and Catherine Wauters. Interment was at the Victor Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the Lois Shine Memorial Fund.

Lois was born on Oct. 24, 1924, near Deep River, to George and Martha "Jenny" McWilliams. She was raised in the Deep River area and graduated from Deep River High School.

On Easter Sunday, April 5, 1942, she was married to Wilbur G. Shine in Memphis, Mo. The couple operated a grain and livestock farm south of Victor until 1976 when they moved to Victor. She worked in the food service of the HLV School District for many years.

Lois was a member of the New Covenant-United Methodist Church of Victor, the Ruth Circle of the church, and 4-H. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, baking and was a beautiful seamstress. She also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include her son, Dennis (Patty) Shine, of rural Victor; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Virginia Romberg; and one brother-in-law, Mel Uridel.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbur; one daughter, Barbara Jo Johnson; her parents; and one brother, Keith Yeo.