

Skip Weideman

DT News Dec 9, 2009

Kurt "Skip" Weideman of Sully, formerly of Killduff, died Dec. 3, 2009. Skip was born July 9, 1959 and graduated from Lynnvile-Sully High School in 1977. For three decades he worked and built a huge client and friendship base across Iowa in the plumbing and heating industry. When not engaged at a job site, he was totally dedicated to his children, their school activities and the great outdoors. He was employed by Sully Transport Inc. at the time of his death.

Those left to honor Skip's memory are his two sons, Cole (Jennifer) Weideman of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Kaid Weideman of Sully; his daughter, Trisha Weideman of Sully; step granddaughter, Mackenzie; his brother, Craig (Rhea) Weideman of Virginia Beach, Virginia; his sister, Jane (Jim) Vander Weerd of Sully; two nephews, Kody (Karina) Vander Weerd of Pella, and Tanner Vander Weerd of Sully; and niece, Betsy Vander Weerd of Sully. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wayne and Freda I. (Adams) Weideman; and two sisters, Jenice and Denise Weideman.

Memorial service was held on Monday, Dec. 7. A private family burial was held at St. Andrews Lutheran Cemetery in rural Sully. Weideman Skip Memorials are to the Lynnvile-Sully Athletic Department to be used for the wrestling and baseball teams.

Kurt (Skip) Weideman

60s H-R
12-7-09

Kurt (Skip) Weideman, 50, of Sully died Thursday, Dec. 3, 2009, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

A memorial service was held Monday, Dec. 7, at Wallace Family Funeral Home in Newton with the Rev. Dr. Doug Smiley, pastor of Lynnville Friends Church, officiating. Private family burial was held in St. Andrews Lutheran Cemetery, rural Sully. Memorials may be made to the Lynnville-Sully Athletic Department to be used for wrestling and baseball teams and left at the funeral home.

He was born July 9, 1959, in Grinnell, the son of Wayne and Freda Adams Weideman. He graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School with the class of 1977. For three decades he worked and built a large client and friendship base throughout Iowa in the plumbing and heating industry. When not engaged in his business, he was devoted to his children, their activities and the outdoors. At the time of his death, he was employed by Sully Transport Co.

He is survived by two sons, Cole Weideman of Virginia Beach, Va., and Kaid Weideman of Sully; his daughter, Trisha Weideman of Sully; his brother Craig Weideman of Virginia Beach, Va., and his sister Jane Vander Weerd of Sully. He was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters, Jenice and Denise Weideman.