

Bernadine Marie Hall, 85

11-6-2-9-22
Bernadine Marie Hall, age 85, of Brooklyn, died Thursday, Feb. 3, 2011, at the Grinnell Regional Medical Center. Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10 a.m., Monday, Feb. 7, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church with Fr. Brian Shepley and Fr. Richard Okumu officiating. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn. Memorials may be contributed to Camp Courageous. Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, is in charge of arrangements.

Bernadine is survived by her sons, Terry Hall (Germaine) and Craig Hall (Connie) all of Brooklyn; eight grandchildren, Tony Hall (Kelly) of Grinnell, Doug Hall (Sandi) of Marissa, Ill., Laurie Gerard (Brett) of Victor, Kurt Hall of Brooklyn, Robert Hall (Crystal) of Victor, Angie Princehouse (Chad) of Toledo, Archie Hall (Anne) of Victor, and Amy Rider (Chris) of Urbana; and 18 great-grandchildren, Brandon and Kayla Hall, Brandon and Chelsea Weekley, Danielle Hall, Tyler Johner, Dayna, Shelby, Jamie and Cassidy Gerard, Jocelyn Hall, Josie and Ashlyn Hall, Garrett and Laney Princehouse, Brock and Brody Hall and Owen Rider. Also surviving are two sisters, Patsy Seye, and Yvonne Hawkins (Dale) of Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Lloyd, in 2001; and a son, Allen, in 2009.

Bernadine Marie LaKose was born July 1, 1925 in rural Victor, the daughter of Charles Phillip LaKose and Flora Maria Dalle LaKose. She received her education in the Warren Township #9 School. Bernadine was united in marriage to Lloyd LeRoy Hall on March 10, 1947, at St. Patrick's Rectory, Brooklyn. Bernadine loved her family. She enjoyed gardening, flowers, canning and bird watching. She loved playing the organ and also loved to dance. She especially enjoyed baking for her grandchildren.

Online condolences may be extended to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.