

MABEL RUTH LAMBERT.

Mabel Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Lambert, living five miles east of the city, died a victim of the prevailing influenza after a short illness. The balance of the family being sick, a short service was held at the family residence by Rev. J. M. Brown, and the body was brought to Hazelwood for burial.

Mabel was a beautiful child, 6 years of age, and the stricken parents have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors.

Herald
11-12-1918