Elsie Genevieve Hand was born on January 3, 1911, in Chicago, IL, the daughter of Louis J. and Clara (Gyorek) Rohach. When she was 5 years old, the family moved to Iowa and lived on various farms in Poweshiek and Tama Counties. Elsie attended the rural schools. On January 1, 1930, she was united in holy matrimony to Floyd L. "Bud" Hand. Following their marriage, the couple farmed in Poweshiek and Tama Counties and raised their five children. Bud died unexpectedly on June 27, 1967 at the age of 59. Elsie continued to reside on their family farm until she entered the care center on May 2, 2011. Elsie was a faithful member of St. Patrick Catholic Church and C.C.W. Elsie celebrated over 100 years of life. Most importantly, Elsie was a devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great-great grandmother and an excellent cook. She loved spending time with family and friends and making sure they never left her house hungry.

Surviving is her daughter, Mildred Dolezal of Tama; a son, LaVerne (Helen) Hand of Tama; a sister, Anna Zigmund, Clearwater Beach, FL; 2 daughters-in-law, Carlene Hand, Tama and Delores Hand, Tuscon, AZ; 22 grandchildren; 44 great-grandchildren; and 21 great-great grandchildren.

In eternal life, Elsie is reunited with her parents; husband, Bud; 3 sons: Floyd W., John and Franklin; 3 sisters: Clara (in infancy), Margaret Kunch, Mayme Zigmund; 2 brothers: Louis & Joe Rohach and 1 granddaughter; 2 great-granddaughters and 1 great, great granddaughter.
