

Steven Carl Sadler

Steven Carl Sadler, 59, formerly of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2012, of cancer at his home in Bondurant.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 21, at Hamilton's Altoona Funeral Home, 105 4th Street SW, with burial to follow at Franklin Township Cemetery. Visitation will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made the Bondurant Fire Department or Cross Point United Methodist Church. Online condolences may be made to: www.HamiltonsFuneralHome.com.

More information will appear in the Monday paper. GHR 1-19-12

Steve Sadler

GHR
1-23-12

Steven Carl Sadler, 59, died Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2012, at his home in Bondurant from cancer.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 21, at Hamilton's Altoona Funeral Home, 105 4th Street SW, with burial following at Franklin Township Cemetery. Visitation was held Friday evening at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made in his name to the Bondurant Fire Department or Cross Point United Methodist Church. Online condolences may be made to www.HamiltonsFuneralHome.com.

He was born Aug. 26, 1952, to Russell and Violet Sadler in Grinnell.

Steve graduated from Grinnell High School and then served in the Army during the Vietnam War. He worked at Gustafson for 15 years and most recently was the plant manager for Chemorse. Steve was a member of Cross Point United Methodist Church in Bondurant and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He also coached many different sports through the years.

Steven is survived by his wife of 27 years, Mary Sadler; children, Brett Sadler, Alison Myrtue, and Jessalyn Sadler; father, Russ Sadler; mother, Vi VanWyk; brothers, Doug, Greg, and Scott Sadler; sister, Deb Sadler; and a host of other family and friends.