

Frank Curtis Seymour

Frank Curtis Seymour, 83, of rural Tama, died Tuesday, Jan. 10, 2012, at his home under care of Iowa Hospice.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Assembly of God Church in Tama. Interment followed at Oak Hill Cemetery in Tama.

A memorial fund has been established.

Frank was born on March 18, 1928, in rural Tama on the Meskwaki Settlement, the son of Michael and Sophia Tesson Seymour.

On May 6, 1955, he was united in marriage with Pat Blocker in Bethany, Mo. Frank was a well-known musician in the area. He was employed as a laborer at Kiowa Corporation for 27 years and also worked for the railroad. He was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Tama. Frank loved to fish, hunt and trap.

Survivors include his wife, Pat of Tama; his children, Curtis Seymour of Tama, Storm Seymour of Tama, Dwayne Seymour of Tama, Charlie Seymour of Tama, Michelle Lee Grimes of Toledo and Ira Dean Seymour of Tama; 23 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one sister, Iola Snow of Tama; his adopted brothers, Vernon Jefferson and Victor White; and his adopted sister, Doris Poweshiek-American Horse.

Preceding him in death were his parents; a son, Bruce Wayne Seymour; brothers Robert Seymour, Harold Snow and two infant brothers; and two sisters, Irene Seymour and Elaine Seymour.

CHR 1-16-2012