

DORIS E. CLUBB

Doris E. Clubb, 93 of What Cheer, died April 8, at the Sigourney Care Center. Services were, April 14, at the Presbyterian Church in Gibson. Burial was in Sixteen Cemetery near Thornburg.

Doris Eleanor Clubb daughter of William Kent Shepherd and Eletha Claire Wilhite, was born May 19, 1918 near Thornburg. She attended grammar school in What Cheer and was graduated from North High School, Des Moines in 1936.

Doris worked as a telephone operator before attending Thompson Beauty School in Des Moines. After receiving her degree in Cosmetology Doris began working at the Webster City Hotel Beauty Shop. Doris moved back to the Thornburg area and began working at the Grocery Store in Gibson.

On September 16, 1951 she was united in marriage to Rufus Paul Clubb at the Presbyterian Church in Gibson. The couple farmed for several years in the Gibson, Thornburg and Delta areas before Rufus died in 1975. In 1976 Doris relocated to Sigourney and in 2002 she settled in What Cheer.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Rufus Clubb; a daughter Retha Karyl Clubb; two brothers and their wives, Robert (Adena) Shepherd, William (Ethlyn) Shepherd; and a brother-in-law, Deno Brugioni.

She is survived by her daughter and best friend, Diane Clubb; and other relatives.