

BC
Wednesday, July 15, 1987

HAZEL B. MONTGOMERY

Funeral Services for Miss Hazel Montgomery, 96, of Brooklyn, were held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, in the Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Miss Montgomery died Monday morning, July 13, 1987, in the Brookhaven Nursing Home, Brooklyn.

Rev. Lynn Williams, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Nina Bartachek. Flower attendant was Mrs. Marilyn Montgomery. Casket-bearers were Willis Montgomery, Gene Montgomery, John Schwiebert, Scott Montgomery, Kyle Montgomery, and Max Montgomery. Interment was in the IOOF Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Hazel Belle Montgomery, daughter of William B. Montgomery and Idella Read Montgomery, was born January 12, 1891, in Bear Creek Township, Poweshiek County, Iowa.

Miss Montgomery received her education in a rural school and then taught school. Later she attended Capital City Commercial College in Des Moines. She worked in Minneapolis later moving to Santa Barbara, Calif., where she was employed by the US Forestry Service. Following retirement she moved back to Brooklyn in 1976, where she lived with her sister, Lois Lidtka, until she became a resident of Brookhaven Nursing Home in 1978.

Miss Montgomery was a member of a Presbyterian Church in Santa Barbara where she was an elder, a Sunday School teacher, and Sunday School Superintendent. Since returning to Brooklyn she was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn. Miss Montgomery loved to travel.

Surviving are three brothers, Hugh R. Montgomery of Grinnell, Raymond T. Montgomery of Brooklyn, and Howard L. Montgomery of Forsyth, Ill.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and two sisters.