Hazel G. LeBeau, 94, of Victor, died on Tuesday, Nov. 4, 2008, at her home.

A funeral service was held at 11 a.m., Friday, Nov. 7, at the Madison Church of Christ with Pastor Dennis Smith of the Madison Church of Christ officiating. Music was provided by Margery DeVilder, pianist, and Patty Lang, vocalist. Casket bearers were Dave Bastian, Rob Evans, Marvin and Ron Keller, Ron and Randy Read. Interment was at the Victor Memorial Cemetery with the Smith Funeral Home of Victor in charge of arrangements.

Memorials in her name may be directed to the Madison Church of Christ.

Hazel was born on March 23, 1914, on the family farm near Brooklyn, to James and Gertrude Kenyon Keller. She was raised on the farm, attended country school, and graduated with the Class of 1933 from Brooklyn High School. She remained on the family farm and assisted with household chores and raising her siblings.

On Jan. 30, 1953, she was united in marriage to Roy Mercer LeBeau at her parent's home. Hazel and Roy operated a grain and livestock farm southwest of Victor. She maintained the family's garden and raised chickens and ducks. She was employed for over ten years at the Victorian Inn.

Hazel was a member of the Madison Church of Christ, the Farm Bureau, and the H & W Club. She enjoyed raising flowers, needlework, reading, traveling and solving word puzzles.

Survivors include her daughter, Jeanie Edwards of Victor; two granddaughters, Penny (Jim) Yenter of Williamsburg, and Tammi (Corey) Twedt of Ankeny; two great-grandchildren, Madalynne and Christopher Yenter; and one sister, Glenna Evans of Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; her son-in-law, Marvin Edwards; two brothers, Arthur and Wallace Keller; and three sisters, Irma Reimers, Elsie and Shirley Keller.
