

Alice Fay Montgomery, 71

Alice Fay Montgomery, 71, of Snellville, Ga., passed away suddenly on Sept. 10, 2008.

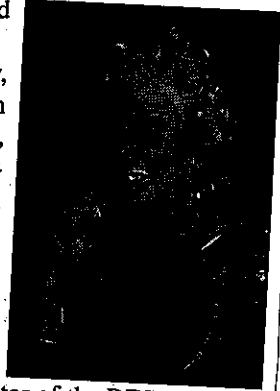

A Celebration of Life Ceremony will be held on Sunday, Sept. 28, at 11 a.m., in the 408 (Forty and Eight) room at the Loganville American Legion Post 233, Loganville, Ga. Alice's remains were cremated as requested, a graveside service will be held in the spring in Victor, her final resting place.

Alice was married to her beloved husband, W.W. Montgomery for 51 years. Alice was born in Menominee, Mich., and raised in Peshtigo, Wis. She was a dedicated member of the American Legion Auxiliary for 50 years, and active with the Yaarab Shrine Club, Daughters of the Nile, Director of the DESA Sailors, and a volunteer for Soldiers Connections.

She was passionate about family and friends, touching so many lives. A loving grandmother who enjoyed seeing her grandsons many ballgames. She visited more than 35 countries with her loving husband, and this year traveled to Australia and New Zealand, and a Caribbean cruise with family members in July.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother, Edward and Marie Dohnal; and infant sister, Janet Joy.

She is survived by her husband, William Worth Montgomery of Snellville, Ga.; along with her four children, Scott Montgomery of San Diego, Calif., Todd Montgomery of Georgetown, Texas, Dawn Turner of Lawrenceville, Ga., and Lisa MacDonald of Huntingtown, Md.; and five grandchildren, Liza, Trevor and Quentin Turner, and Will and Allison Montgomery.

BC 9/24/08