

BILL GLENWOOD TAYLOR

Bill Glenwood Taylor, son of Earl and Mary Virginia (Johnson) Taylor, was born Sept. 21, 1947 in Montezuma. He was a 1965 graduate of Montezuma High School. On February 4, 1984, Bill was united in marriage to Alice Jensen. To this union two children were born, Earl Edwin Taylor II and Earlene Edwina Taylor.

Bill started driving a semi with his father, Earl Taylor, at the age of fourteen and continued the family trucking business, Taylor & Taylor Trucking, after his father's death for 28 years. Bill also served in the Army during the Vietnam War. Assigned the security duty, he was a dog handler.

Bill enjoyed trucking, camping, hunting, cigars, splitting wood, driving around on his golf cart, spending time with his family and friends, and his pets. Bill is also well known as a prolific story teller and as an individual who loved to laugh.

Bill passed away Monday, December 31 in Grinnell. He is survived by his wife, Alice Taylor; children; Earl Taylor of Montezuma and Earlene Taylor of Montezuma; a grandpuppy, Ava; two brothers; Charles Taylor (Kennetha Criswell) of New Sharon and Jack (Lana) Taylor of Montezuma; one sister, Linda (Chuck) Boeding of Montezuma and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Bill Taylor's family held a memorial service at Community Hope Church on Jan. 4th.
