Teresa L. Sharer was born on January 17, 1952, in Marshalltown, Iowa. She was the daughter of Jack and Lucille (Merritt) Sharer. Teresa graduated from Grinnell High School with the class of 1970, and then attended Hawkeye Tech in Waterloo, Iowa, and graduated from the art program 1976. She was united in marriage to Art Benoit at Central Christian Church. They shared the love of art, and travel. Teresa loved to garden, and fish, and enjoyed the out of doors; she also loved being a devoted aunt. Teresa had a great love for animals.

Left to cherish her memory are her brothers Jack Sharer, and Michael (Susan) Sharer, all of Marshalltown; nieces and nephews Martin (Karen) Sharer of Marshalltown, Julie Sharer of Marshalltown, and Melissa (John Pieters) Sharer of rural Laurel; great-nieces and nephews Ryan of Waterloo, Katie Sharer of Marshalltown, Angelene (Dave) Fouch of Altoona, and Joel and Taylor Fouch of Altoona; and step-great-nephews Brock and Lincoln Pieters.

In death Teresa rejoins her parents Jack and Lucille, her husband Art and sister-in-law Jean Sharer
