Madeline Albers was born on November 19, 1940, in Gilman, Iowa, to John Albers Sr. and Irene Campbell. On April 17, 1958, she was united in marriage to Francis Matney in Marshalltown. She was employed at Delong Sportswear Incorporated for 20 plus years as a seamstress, and a homemaker. Madeline enjoyed talking on the phone, sewing, loved to read and collect newspapers and magazines, had rental properties and just liked to help anyone out. She also had just joined Facebook and enjoyed to follow all of her grandchildren.

Left to cherish her memory are her husband of 54 years, Francis; mother Irene Edgeton; children Julie (Mark) Bjelland of Marshalltown; Doug Matney of Iowa, Louisiana; Barbie (Court) Hembree of Gilman; Becky (Mike) Strawn of Gilman and Laura (Chris) Kuesel of Gilman; grandchildren Brenda (Jeremy), Chris, Jessi (Mike), Jason, John, Steffanie, Bethney (BJ), Carsen, Jenni, Jake, Adam, Brianne, Matthew, Samantha and Katie; great grandchildren Maddie, Elizabeth, Wyatt, Lily, Aidon, Lauren and Tate; siblings John (Linda) Albers Jr. of Arkansas; Larry Albers of California; Denny (Toni) Albers of Arkansas; Glenn Edgeton of Florida; Dennis (Martha) Edgeton of Eldora and Albert (Judy) Albers of California; Brenda Porter and her beloved Bouvier dog and golf cart companion C.J. She will truly be missed by many.

Madeline is preceded in death by her father, John Albers Sr.; stepfather Laverne Edgeton; and granddaughter Jill McMeekin.
