

PAULINE DRAPER
REYNOLDS SODERHOLM

Pauline Draper Reynolds Soderholm, 85, of Ames, died April 1 at Israel Family Hospice House in Ames. Services were April 5, at Bethesda Lutheran Church in Ames. Burial was in Buckingham Cemetery near Traer.

Pauline Draper was born March 12, 1928, on a farm near Traer. She was the fifth child of Norman W. and Bertie (Huston) Draper. She was graduated from Traer High

Record 4-11-2013

School in 1946 and attended Wm. Penn College.

Pauline married Paul D. Reynolds on October 10, 1948 in Traer. They had two sons, Paul David Reynolds and Payce Dean Reynolds. The family lived in Newton, Minneapolis, Minn., Largo, Fla., Cedar Rapids, Montezuma, and Jewell. Paul died Sept. 3, 1981. Pauline married Leo H. Soderholm August 3, 1985 and they made their home in Ames. Pauline was employed at various positions over the years including working as a school secretary and as a draftsman.

Pauline is survived by her husband Leo Soderholm of Ames; sons Paul (Phyllis) Reynolds, Weston, Fla. and Payce (Jody) Reynolds, Pella, and three step-children. She is also survived by one sister, Kathy Gifford; four sisters-in-law, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her first husband, Paul Reynolds; six brothers, Elmer, Wendell, Norman, George, Ralph and Wayne; two sisters, Stella Jean Day and Evelyn Matlock; and one sister-in-law, Margaret (Elmer) Draper.