Bertha Irene See was born March 18, 1922, in Kellogg. She spent her childhood years in the Grinnell area. She was united in marriage to Lawrence See, and to this union two children were born. Bertha and Lawrence had many travels throughout their life, calling many places home.

Bertha was a loving wife and mother who always made her family the center of her attention. She continued this loving spirit with her grandchildren. Bertha was a seamstress who loved to sew and make quilts. As she completed a quilt, she would give it to a family member as a gift – a true expression of her loving heart and caring manner. Bertha also enjoyed camping in the great outdoors and the occasional George Jones song. She will always be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother and friend.

Bertha was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Lawrence (1998); a brother Howard; and a sister, Faye.

Left to honor her memory are her two sons, Marion (Ruth) See of Malcom, and Lawrence See of Texas. She also has seven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and 18 great-great-grandchildren.
