

64-R
3-3-
2014

Maxine M. Deppe

Maxine M. Deppe, 92, of rural Kellogg died Wednesday, Feb. 26, 2014, at Grandview Heights healthcare in Marshalltown.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, March 4, at 2:30 p.m. Friends may call beginning at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, with family present starting at 1:30 p.m. at the Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory in Newton. Memorials in Maxine's name may be left at the funeral home the day of the service.

Maxine, the daughter of George and Ella Griebel Loupee, was born on April 21, 1921, in Malaka Township north of Newton. She graduated from high school and continued her education to become a country school teacher. Maxine was united in marriage with Lorne Deppe on Aug. 19, 1956, at St. John's Church of Christ. Maxine later was a substitute teacher before becoming a stay-at-home mom. Later, she retired as a salesclerk in Grinnell.

Maxine was a member of the United Methodist Church in Kellogg and the Barrett Homemakers' Club and a past member of the St. John's Church of Christ. She volunteered at the Kellogg Historical Museum and spent her free time gardening, listening to the radio, going to the races, going out to eat, and going on "deer" drives. In 2011, Maxine moved to the Grandview Heights healthcare in Marshalltown. Prior to that, she lived with her son and daughter-in-law in rural Kellogg.

She is survived by her son, Rusty Deppe of rural Kellogg; two grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Lorne Deppe in 1990; and siblings, Robert Loupee, Myrtle Campell, and George Loupee Jr.