Luella Vera Good, daughter of Henry and Ethel (Hutchinson) Anderson, was born on November 2, 1920 in Scott Township in Poweshiek County. She was a 1939 graduate of Montezuma High School. On October 10, 1941, Luella was united in marriage to Paul Good at the United Methodist Church in Grinnell. To this union one daughter was born, Lyndal. They farmed south of Montezuma until retiring and moving to town in 1981. Paul died in 1992. Luella entered the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in 2003. She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Luella was a typical farmer's wife. She enjoyed gardening, canning, sewing and was an excellent pie baker. She was a member of the Montezuma First Evangelical Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Women, the American Legion Auxiliary, Forest Home Club and a 4-H leader for many years.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Paul; two brothers, Paul and Lyle Anderson; a son-in-law, Craig Watts; and a brother-in-law, Jim Wilkinson.

Luella is survived by her daughter, Lyndal Watts of Altoona; two grandsons and their families, Scott (Julie), Carson, Cailey and Cutler Watts of Runnells and Greg (Brenda), Cassidy and Carrington Watts of Montezuma and Jes Gideon of Charlotte and Tanner Budde of Colorado Springs, Colo.; one granddaughter, Angela (David) and Brayden Schiebel of Ankeny; one sister, Grace Wilkinson of Tama; two brothers, Raymond (Sherrill) Anderson of Eldora and Clark (Cherri) Anderson of Gilbert, Ariz.; two sisters-in-law, Mildred Hess of Newton and Ladona Anderson of Montezuma; and many nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.
