Kara Irene Meyer, the daughter of Jason and Jodi (Nading) Meyer, was born on September 22, 2007, in Grinnell, Iowa. She just graduated from Kindergarten in Montezuma and lived her life like many wish they could, enjoying every minute. She was a daddy's farm girl from the beginning. From the time she could walk, she was by his side following in his footsteps. It was not unusual for her to come across the barnyard to help in rubber boots and a dress. The outdoors was her playground. She was an expert at finding the best spots for asparagus and mushrooms, and loved to ride the ranger with her dad and big brother. She made the most of every season and knew that with snow came riding the snowmobile. There was not a "rainbow fish" that was safe when Kara was fishing. She made sure to help grandma with feeding the bottle calves and the chicken chores. Kara was a co-pilot for her dad in the combine and tractor, making sure he did everything correctly. She would ride with him for hours and leaving his side was the hardest part. Kara loved the life her parents provided for her. If she wasn't farming, you could find her making someone smile with her hula hooping skills, cheerleading, or watching her favorite show, Dora The Explorer. Kara had the gift of love and happiness that she shared with those that were lucky enough to be a part of her life. She made the best of every situation, and her laugh and smile were contagious. Kara packed a lifetime of joy into her short time here with us, and everyone she touched is better off because of her. She taught us how to "Live like Kara."

Kara is preceded in death by her great grandparents, Dean Mitts, Doris Nading, Opa and Oma Meyer, and Harold and Irene Mohling, and a cousin, Niki Jo Nading.

Left to "Live like Kara" are her loving parents, Jason and Jodi Meyer; her two brothers, Tyler and Jacob Meyer; her sister, Makaela Meyer; her paternal grandparents, Uwe and Diane Meyer; her maternal grandparents, Terry and Judy Nading; her great grandparents, Irene Mitts and Wilbur Nading; her uncles, Eric (Serena) Meyer, Brett (Kristin) Meyer; her aunts, Jenny (Josh) Dearborn, Jesse (Jason) Henry, and Jill Meyer; her cousins, Emma Meyer, Maddy Meyer, Dakota Henry, Emmalee Henry, Hunter Henry, Brookelynn Henry, Madilynn Dearborn and Isabella Dearborn, and many friends.

A 6-year-old girl is in critical but stable condition after a Monday morning ATV accident.

Kara Meyer, the daughter of Jason and Jodi Meyer, was airlifted from Grinnell Regional Medical Center to the University of Iowa Children's Hospital following the accident.

Emergency crews were called to the scene near 510th Street around 9 a.m., Monday.

According to an email message from Jodi Meyer, Kara and her younger brother, Jacob, rode with their father on his Ranger to a field where some of their cows had gotten out.

Once the cattle were back where they were supposed to be, Jason Meyer stopped on the side of the road to re-lock the gate.

At that moment, the Ranger rolled down the shoulder, pinning Kara under the rollbar.

"Jason tried with all his power to lift the Ranger, but couldn't," Jodi Meyer wrote.

Jason Meyer called 911, and his daughter was rescued from under the ATV.

Jodi Meyer encouraged Kara's classmates to write her at:

By James Jennings

Hundreds of people gathered on Court House Square in Montezuma Sunday night to honor Kara Meyer and support her family.

More than 200 pink balloons, many carrying messages, were launched prior to the candlelight vigil that honored the 6-year-old who died Wednesday, May 28 from the result of injuries sustained in a freak ATV accident on Memorial Day morning.

As soon as word began to spread about the accident last week, a grassroots support effort sprung up and caught fire. People began posting videos of Kara on Facebook page and on a "Prayers for Kara" Facebook page and raising money for a special fund. T-shirts and decals were also printed and sold for the fund.

Donations can be made to the Kartwheels for Kara Fund at Peoples Savings Bank in Montezuma. Record 6-5-2014
