Susan S. Johnson, the daughter of John and Annie Shedd Snyder, was born on June 12, 1918, in Roland, Iowa. She was a graduate of Hornick High School in Hornick, Iowa, in 1934 and also a graduate of the University of Iowa in 1939. On Sept. 1, 1940, she was united in marriage with Vincent Johnson in Davenport, and they had two children. While her husband attended law school, they lived in Ann Arbor, Mich., where she worked as a secretary for an attorney.

Following Vincent's graduation, they moved back to the family farm near Montezuma. Susan taught music and English for a year at Barnes City before working for her husband at the Johnson Law Office as a secretary for over 40 years, retiring in 1991. After retirement, they enjoyed wintering in Sun City, Ariz., and traveling, with most notable trips to the Mediterranean, Alaska and cruises in the Caribbean. Susan enjoyed baking pies, cooking, sewing and singing, and was a member of the United Methodist Church and its choir, PEO, Daughter of the American Revolution, KYN Club and the Eastern Star.

She is survived by her children Kristin Armstrong of Gibson and Vincent Johnson II of Montezuma; four grandchildren; two step grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; five step great grandchildren; and a sister, Ranné Sioux of Salisbury, NC.

Susan was preceded in death by her parents, John and Annie Snyder; her husband, Vincent; and two brothers, Richard Allan Snyder and John Shedd Snyder.
