

Margaret Anne 64-R
Tutt Stokely 1-8-2015

Margaret Anne Tutt Stokely, 88, of Iowa City, died Jan. 7, 2015, at Mercy Hospital.

A celebration of life service will be held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Iowa City, with the Rev. Arnette Pint officiating. Following the memorial service, a time of food and fellowship will be held in the church's fellowship hall. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery in Iowa City.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to St. Mark's United Methodist Church and Hospice of Iowa City.

Margaret was born on the first day of summer, June 21, 1926, in Perry. She was the daughter of Ansel and Beulah Baker Tutt. She graduated from Perry High School in 1944, and then graduated from Iowa State University in 1948 with a BS in dietetics and a minor in chemistry.

Upon graduation from college Margaret was employed as a dietitian in the residence halls at the University of Iowa. She retired as the food service manager in 1991.

Margaret was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church. She belonged to numerous clubs and groups. She enjoyed being on the board of Ecumenical Towers, a volunteer reader in the elementary schools, and a storyteller in senior living facilities. Her hobbies included reading, knitting and making quilts and collecting nutcrackers and nativities from her numerous travels with friends and family. She was an avid Hawkeye fan, holding football season tickets since 1948.

Margaret is survived by her daughter, Anne Lannom of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her parents.
