

Funeral Monday For Mrs. Norris

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Norris, 87, were conducted Monday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer's funeral home in charge of the Rev. M. C. Shupe, pastor of Grace Methodist church. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist. Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Howard Patten, Bert Kann, Glenn Mowrey, Lester Norman, Amos Reida and Mark Johnston serving as pallbearers. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerard had charge of floral arrangements.

Mrs. Norris, a Brooklyn resident for many years, died last Saturday in a Grinnell rest home where she had lived for the past eight years during which time she was bedfast following a stroke.

The daughter of Joseph and Mabel Orr, Jennie Ella Orr was born Dec. 9, 1871, in the state of Pennsylvania and died Dec. 13, 1958. She came to Iowa with her family when she was about seven years of age and, with the exception of eight years spent in Wyoming, had lived in the vicinity of Brooklyn the remainder of her life.

She was married August 2, 1894, to Jacob Norris and ten children were born to the couple. She became a member of Grace Methodist church while attending high school and was also a member of the Pythian Sisters.

Mrs. Norris is survived by eight children. They include: Fred Norris of Keokuk, Mrs. Myron (Ina) Price of Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. Henry (Lillie) Hockett of Upton, Wyo., Mrs. Clarence (Grace) Cookston of Montasano, Wash., Mrs. Mary Chapman of Upton, Wyo., Mrs. Roland (Naomi) Price of Central City, Ia., Mrs. Lila Johnston of Gering, Nebr., and Ralph Norris of Brooklyn. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Hall of Guernsey and Mrs. Daisy Patten of Brooklyn; one brother, Henry Orr of Riverton, Wyo.; 40 grandchildren and 60 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband who died Jan. 29, 1944; two children, Joseph and Jessie; two brothers and two sisters.

Brooklyn Chronicle
Dec. 18, 1958

Mrs. Jennie Norris,
Longtime Resident
Of Brooklyn, Dies

Mrs. Jennie Norris, 87, longtime resident of Brooklyn, died at a Grinnell nursing home on December 13th following a long illness.

Funeral services were held December 15th at Brooklyn with the Rev. M. C. Shupe, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Mrs. Ed Barnachek was organist and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerard had charge of flowers.

Pallbearers were Howard Putnam, Bert Kann, Glenn Mowrey, Lester Norman, Amos Reida and Mark Johnston. Interment was in the ICOF cemetery.

Daughter of Joseph and

BROOKLYN

7-122220
Thursday, December 18, 1958

Mabel Orr, she was born December 9th, 1871 in Pennsylvania. She was one of seven children. When about seven years of age she came to Iowa with her family and with the exception of eight years spent in Wyoming, her entire life was spent in and near Brooklyn.

August 2nd, 1894, she was united in marriage to Jacob Norris and to this union, ten children were born: Fred, Ina Price, Lillie Hockett, Grace Cookston, Mary Chapman, Naomi Price, Lila Johnston, and Rabin. Two children, Joseph and Jessie, preceded her in death. Her husband died in 1944.

Mrs. Norris became a member of Grace Methodist church while in high school and was also a member of the Pythian Sisters.

Surviving relatives are her eight children: two sisters, Lillie Hall of Guernsey and Daisy Patten of Brooklyn; and one brother, Henry Orr of Riverton, Wyoming.

Jacob