

CHARLES M. DAVIS

C.M. Davis, 76, died Nov. 20, 2011, at age 76, survived by Patricia, his high school sweetheart and wife of 57 years, whom he married Sept. 5, 1954. Charles Manford Davis was born and raised in Malcom, the ninth and youngest child of Iver and Ruth Davis.

His first work was as a telegrapher for the Rock Island Railroad. He enlisted and reported for duty in the U.S. Army Sept. 23, 1954, serving in Germany until 1956. C.M. was a banker for many years, a home builder, and active in real estate investments, all of which he enjoyed very much.

He married his high school sweetheart Patricia, September 5, 1954. He relished most his wife, three children, 15 grand-children, a large extended family, and a host of friends. Davis Charles M

C.M. is survived by his wife Patricia, and their three children, Gregg (Stevie) Davis, of Dallas, Pam (Robert) Wagner, of Tulsa, and Patti (Mike) Hale, of Fishkill, N.Y. and grandchildren Haley and Spencer Davis, Jessie, Carson (wife Rachel), Angie, Brady, Rachelle, Duke, Teresa, Sullivan, and Nikki Wagner, and Melinda, Renee, Keith, and Brian Hale. He also survived by four siblings, Ermal Hill of Sun City, Arizona, Jean (Merle) Bates of Fort Worth, Texas, Dick Davis of Alba, Tex. and Beverly (Leonard) Dowdell of Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

The Record - 12-1-2011

12-1-2011

Charles Manford
'C.M.' Davis

Charles Manford "C.M." Davis, 76, of Tulsa, Okla., and formerly of Malcom, died Nov. 20, 2011.

A celebration of his life was held Wednesday, Nov. 23, at Redeemer Covenant Church in Tulsa, with Floral Haven Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to American Parkinson's Disease Association, 1125 S. Trenton Ave., Tulsa, Okla. 74120, attention Jennifer Johnson, or to Redeemer Covenant Church there.

He was born and raised in Malcom, the ninth and youngest child of Iver and Ruth Davis. His first job was as a telegrapher for the Rock Island Railroad. He was united in marriage with his high school sweetheart, Patricia, on Sept. 5, 1954, and enlisted and reported for duty in the U.S. Army Sept. 23, 1954, serving in Germany until 1956. C.M. was a banker for many years, a home-builder and was active in real estate investments, but his extended family and host of friends were his main interest.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years Patricia; their three children, Gregg Davis of Dallas, Texas, Pam Wagner of Tulsa and Patti Hale of Fishkill, NY; 15 grandchildren; and four siblings; Ermal Hill of Sun City, Ariz., Jean Bates of Ft. Worth, Texas, Dick Davis of Alba, Texas, and Beverly Dowdell of Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

C.M. Davis, 76

C.M. Davis is at home with his Lord, Jesus Christ. He made the transition from this life to heaven on Nov. 20, 2011, at age 76, survived by Patricia, his high school sweetheart and wife of 57 years, whom he married Sept. 5, 1954. Charles Manford Davis was born and raised in Malcom, the ninth and youngest child of Iver and Ruth Davis. His first work was as a telegrapher for the Rock Island Railroad. He enlisted and reported for duty in the U.S. Army Sept. 23, 1954, serving in Germany until 1956. C.M. was a banker for many years, a home builder, and active in real estate investments, all of which he enjoyed very much. But he relished most his wife, three children, fifteen grandchildren, a large extended family, and a host of friends.

C.M. is survived by his wife; and their three children, Gregg (Stevie) Davis, of Dallas, Pam (Robert) Wagner, of Tulsa, and Patti (Mike) Hale, of Fishkill, N.Y., and grandchildren Haley and Spencer Davis, Jessie, Carson (wife, Rachel), Angie, Brady, Rachelle, Duke, Teresa, Sullivan, and Nikki Wagner, and Melinda, Renee, Keith, and Brian Hale. He is also survived by four siblings, Ermal Hill of Sun City, Ariz., Jean (Merle) Bates of Fort Worth, Texas, Dick Davis of Alba, Texas, and Beverly (Leonard) Dowdell of Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

We wish time spent with those we love could last forever, and in our hearts it will. C.M.'s body had struggled over the last few years with the effects of Parkinson's, and we now rejoice, knowing those shackles have been permanently removed. If love could have kept him with us, he would have stayed forever. We will draw strength from your thoughts and prayers.

Floral Haven Funeral Home, 6500 S. 129th E. Ave., is in charge of arrangements. Celebration of life was at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 23, at Redeemer Covenant Church, 5415 E. 101st Street, Tulsa, OK 74137.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to American Parkinson's Disease Association, 1125 S. Trenton Ave., Tulsa, OK 74120, attention Jennifer Johnson, or to Redeemer Covenant Church.

PCCR 11-20-2011