

Jerry B. Winchell

Jerry B. Winchell, 62, of Kellogg, died Tuesday, April 5, in Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

A funeral service will be held Friday, April 8, at Pence-Reese Funeral Home in Newton with the Revs. John Claussen and Walt Claussen of Pleasantville officiating. Visitation will take place Thursday, April 7, after 3 p.m. with family members present from 6 to 8 p.m. Burial will take place in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg. Memorials may be made to her name, to Kellogg Christian Church or to Hospice of Jasper County.

She was born July 30, 1942, in Colorado Springs, Colo., the daughter of John Hiram and Bernedine Kitchen Toy Bloodworth. She was a graduate of Palmer High School in Colorado. She was married Aug. 31, 1960, in Newton to Ralph Winchell. They resided in Kellogg and she was employed at Midwest Manufacturing in Kellogg, Sambo's Restaurant in Newton and the Vernon Company in Newton from 1985 until 2003.

She was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church; Ladies Come Together women's prayer group, Rushville Women's Club and Red Hat Packers Club.

She is survived by her husband Ralph of Kellogg; her mother Bernedine Toy of Colorado Springs; two sons, Guy Winchell and Wayne Winchell, both of Newton; one daughter, Lindy Morris of Kellogg; 11 grandchildren; one great grandchild, and two sisters, Darlene Ringler of Newton and Mary Ann Oates of Norwalk, Calif. She was preceded in death by her father; her stepfather James Toy; one sister Clarice Bloodworth and one brother Hayden Boyd Bloodworth

H-R APRIL 7, 2006