Volga Woflord, 95

Volga Woflord, 95, of Montezuma, died Sunday, July 3, 2005 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Her graveside service was on Thursday, July 7, at the Masonic-IOOF Cemetery in Montezuma with Dennis Dorshiemer, of the Jackson church of Christ, officiating. Watts Funeral Home of Montezuma was in charge of the arrangements.

Volga was born June 19, 1910 at Barnes City. On Oct. 19, 1932 she was united in marriage with Harlan Woflord at Blair, Neb. She was a past member of the Baptist Church. For several years,

Harlan was groundskeeper for the Poweshiek County Parks and she assisted him with the collection of camper fees. Volga loved to read and read a book every day. She was always concerned about what was happening in the community even though she was confined to her home.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harlan, on July 24, 1996.

She is survived by her son, Richard, of Simi Valley, Calif.; two grandchildren, Steven and Brenda, and five great-grandchildren, Mitchell, Keith, Shala, Ryan and David.
