John A. Stevens passed away July 15, 2015, at State Center Manor in State Center, Iowa.

John was born on January 25, 1941, in rural Brooklyn to Charles R. and Blanche A. (Hiltbrunner) Stevens. John was raised in rural Brooklyn and spent his early adult years living on the family farm northeast of Brooklyn. John farmed both his mother and father's land. In the late 80s, he moved to Grinnell and drove a taxi and had other short-term employment.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother and sister-in-law Charles L. and Karen L. Stevens, his sister Darlene J. Brown, and niece Catherine S. Brown.

He is survived by his brother, Robert N. (Joan) Stevens of Marshalltown, brother-in-law Earl N. Brown of Grinnell, and 11 nieces and nephews: Laura Brown of North Liberty, Brad Stevens of Marshalltown, Patricia Brown Conkel (Jerry) of Urbandale, Beverly Brown of Grinnell, Lee Ann Stevens Coughlin (Kirk) of Ames, Chuck Stevens of Des Moines, Steven Brown of Des Moines, Jeff Stevens (Lu) of Grinnell, Mark Stevens (Darcy) of Marshalltown, Timothy Brown (Donnie) of Urbandale, and Greg Stevens of Seattle, WA.

John's cremains will be placed to rest beside his mother at the Ohio Cemetery in Ladora, Iowa.
