

LESLIE GROOMS 6H-R
DIED SUDDENLY
THIS MORNING

Leslie L. Grooms, veteran Grinnell barber and one of the proprietors of the Sanitary shop died very suddenly early this morning. He had been a barber in Grinnell for 35 years. His wife died several years ago and he had been living at the Roy Strasser home at 621 Broad street. He is survived by one son, Warren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the James Funeral home with burial in Hazelwood. 1-26-1942

Last Services For Leslie L. Grooms

Largely attended funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the James Funeral home for Leslie L. Grooms, whose sudden death was announced in Monday's Herald-Register. The services were in charge of Rev. Leland W. Mann. Members of the Elks lodge and the Pythian Sisters attended in a body and the Elks had charge of the interment services in Hazelwood cemetery. The pall bearers were Charles Manly, A. B. Hamilton and Jay Parrott from the Elks lodge and Charles Hink, Howard Sage and Guy Gorsuch from the Knights of Pythias. 6HR 1-29 1942