Keith Leon Kline, 91, passed away on Friday, January 29, 2016. A visitation was held Thursday, February 4, 2016 from 9-10:00 a.m., at Stevens Memorial Chapel (607 28th St., Ames, IA 50010). Funeral service was held at 10:00 a.m., Thursday, February 4, 2016, at Stevens Memorial Chapel; burial took place in the Sheridan Cemetery in Malcom, Iowa, on Thursday, February 4, 2016, at 2:00 p.m.

Keith was born on September 28, 1924, to Alba and Mary (Beniger) Kline in Kellogg, Iowa. He graduated in 1942 from Searsboro High School in Searsboro, Iowa. He enlisted in the Army in 1945 and served as a Tech Sergeant until 1948. He married the love of his life Wilma Simmons on April 24, 1949, and they were blessed with two children. Keith was employed in the sales department for Arnold Motor Supply for 25 years eventually becoming manager.

Keith enjoyed bowling and golfing. He loved to dance, and along with Wilma he was a member of the Triple G Square Dance Club for many years. His greatest joy was the time he shared with family and friends and the memories he created.

Keith is survived by a number of nieces and nephews.

Keith is preceded by his wife, Wilma Kline; daughter, Rebecca Kline; and son, Terry Kline.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be directed to: Wesley Life Hospice, (5508 NW 88th St., Johnston, IA 50131).
