Rosellen Helen Seaton was born in Newhall, Iowa on December 3, 1934 the daughter of Edwin and Ida Boddiker Matson. She was a 1952 graduate of Newhall High School and later received her teaching certificate from the Teachers College in Cedar Falls. She taught Kindergarten in Marengo for three years then on December 27, 1955 she was united in marriage to

Charlie Seaton. To this union came six sons. The couple eventually bought a farm south of Deep River where they milked cows, raised hogs and sold seed corn. As a mother of six boys she found herself always feeding extra kids as her house became the place to hang out. Rosellen also worked as a substitute teacher in all the area schools before retiring in 2006. She enjoyed canning, puzzles, crafts, baking pies, the Iowa Hawkeyes, going to the casino, her pet dogs, her grandchildren and any type of family gathering.

Rosellen was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Charlie; a brother, Edwin Matson; three sisters, Alice Ellingson, Virginia Seifert, Mary Matson; and a brother-in-law, Lou Brown.

She is survived by six sons; Mike Seaton, Mark (Sherri) Seaton, Eric (Barb) Seaton, Rodney (Lori) Seaton, Pat (Becky) Seaton and Chris (Amber) Seaton. Rosellen was also blessed with eighteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren with one on the way.
