Marjorie Burns, 94

Marjorie Mae Burns
June 30, 1923 - Feb. 22, 2017

Marjorie Burns, 94 of Montezuma died Feb. 22, at Montezuma Specialty Care. A Celebration of Life Service was held Feb. 28, at First Presbyterian Evangelical Church, Montezuma with Pastor George Salmave officiating. As was her wish, her body has been cremated and burial will be held at a later date in Three Rivers, MI. Memorial contributions may be made to the Montezuma Specialty Care to be used for residents activities. Holland-Coble Funeral Home of Montezuma is in charge of arrangements.

Marjorie Mae Burns, daughter of Walter and Dorothy (Irons) Ferrell, was born June 30, 1944 in Albion, MI. She was graduated from Three Rivers High School in Michigan in 1940. Marjorie attended nursing training to become a LPN, a career she enjoyed for 20 years.

In the sixties, she joined the United States Naval Reserve and served eight years at Great Naval Base in Chicago. After her children were grown, Marjorie worked for the Dupont Company as an Administrative Assistant until her retirement. Following retirement, Marjorie moved to Florida where she enjoyed many years of sunshine and friends. In 2012, she moved to Montezuma. Marjorie enjoyed reading, especially the daily paper and books of Amish history. She became an avid domino player and enjoyed her afternoon games at the Montezuma Country Club. Traveling was a favorite thing for Marjorie. She visited all over the U.S. but especially enjoyed trips through New England seeing the covered bridges, which fascinated her. Marjorie especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.
