Duane C. Rozendaal

Duane C. Rozendaal, 64, of Newton and formerly of Sully, died Friday, May 26, 2017, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

A funeral service was held Wednesday, May 31, at the First Reformed Church in Sully. Memorials in Duane's name (to be made out to his wife, Jodi) may be left at the Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory in Newton.

Duane, the son of Gorman and LaDonna Schuring Rozendaal, was born on March 21, 1953, in Newton. He grew up in Sully and graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School in 1971, then attended Indian Hills Community College. He married Kathy Hunt on Feb. 9, 1973, in Lacey, Iowa. They made their home in Sully and had two sons. Following Kathy's death in 1988, Duane married Jodi Ver Dught Brisel on July 24, 1992 in Newton. In 2005, they moved to rural Newton.

Duane worked as a carpenter for many years with Fred Schmidt, Elscott Construction, and at Fisher Woodmills. For the last 24 years Duane had worked at Central Iowa Rural Water as a right-of-way manager. He also was a real estate agent, broker, and appraiser.

He was a member of the Sully Jaycees, Sully City Council, Elks Lodge #1270, Des Moines Woodworkers Association, Tri-County and Des Moines Bass Clubs, Newton Board of Realtors, and the Jasper County Condemnation Board and Board of Review. Duane liked woodworking, fishing, camping, going to the races and the Iowa State Fair, and spending time with friends and family. Duane was also an ordained minister.

Duane is survived by his wife, Jodi of rural Newton; sons, Brad Rozendaal of Newton, Todd Rozendaal of Des Moines, and Trent Brisel of Newton; six grandchildren; parents, Gorman and LaDonna Rozendaal of Sully; sister, Cindy Pleima of Pella; and other relations.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Kathy, and his grandparents.
