

s, Churches

brary.

Marlene Fae Felton Burggraaf, the 2nd of fraternal twins, was born to Arnold and Treva (Braden) Felton on June 22, 1950 in Waterloo. She always said that's the last time she was late. She attended North Mahaska High School.

She grew up in Waterloo, Promise City and New Sharon. She married Chad Burggraaf, Sept. 15, 1966 in Oskaloosa. To this union two children, Arnold and Coral were born.

Marlene decided to study nursing at Indian Hills and became a LPN in May of 1979. As a LPN she worked in geriatrics. Family was very important to Marlene and she loved spending time with her husband, Chad, and the rest of her family. She loved to read, take naps and visiting with friends and family. Marlene was a faithful member of the Union Mills Christian Church and the Daughters of Rebekah Lodge.

Marlene's memory will be honored by her husband of 51 years, Chad Burggraaf of New Sharon; two children, Arnold (Ginger) Burggraaf of Grinnell and Coral (Jon) Lentzkow of New Sharon; four grandchildren, and many relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Arnold and Treva Felton and her step mother, Pearl Felton.

Marlene Fae Burggraaf

June 22, 1950 - Aug. 13, 2017

Marlene Burggraaf, 67 of New Sharon died Aug. 13, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center. Services were Aug. 17, at Union Mills Christian Church. Burial was in Barnes City Cemetery, Barnes City. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Union Mills Christian Church or the Stülwell Li-