Velma Marie Davis Funeral

Velma Marie Davis, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Davis, was born February 3, 1931, and departed this life June 1, 1933. She was aged 2 years, 3 months and 28 days. She died shortly after an accident which occurred when she was hit by a freight train on the Rock Island track near her home. The family had been living in Marshalltown until the last few months.

Funeral services were held from the Snyder funeral parlors Monday afternoon, June 5, at two o'clock, in charge of Miss Carrie Butler. Dr. C. W. Greene sang, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Arthur McDowell. Pall bearers were Leona Hadley, Lucille McDowell, Betty Whitaker and Ellen Louise Watkins. The body was laid to rest in Hazelwood cemetery.
