

Des Moines Man Dies Wednesday

Arthur Tompkins, 519 Raccoon Road, Des Moines, died at a local hospital Wednesday evening as the result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Sunday night. The accident occurred just east of Victor. Mr. Tompkins is survived by his widow and several children.

Three cars were involved in the accident Sunday night which was fatal to Tompkins. The Des Moines man was riding with Leo Monahan, Red Keegan and George Meyer, who were on their way to Williamsburg. This car struck and locked wheels with an automobile driven by Milo Renfield, who lives near Victor. A car which was following Renfield crashed into the other two.

Leota Refer and Irene Voelkel of Victor, who were riding in one of the cars, were painfully hurt.
