

YOUNG MOTHER CALLED

Dread Pneumonia Causes Death of
Mrs. H. T. Anderson at Her Home
In This City.

LEAVES HER HUSBAND AND ONE DAUGHTER

Family Came Here From Newton Last Spring -- Funeral at Home Monday Forenoon.

Mrs. H. T. Anderson died Saturday at 9:30 a. m. at her home, 632 Prairie street, in this city, from pneumonia, resulting from influenza. Her sickness was of less than a week's duration, beginning the Sunday before her death.

Jennie Marshall was born on a farm in Warren county, April 18, 1894. When she was two years old her mother died, and she came to live with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Phipps, who lived on a farm six miles west of Grinnell. Here she grew to womanhood and here engaged in teaching in Jasper and Marshall counties.

Miss Marshall was united in marriage to H. T. Anderson, June 12, 1915. The young people made their home in Newton prior to their marriage, where they lived until last spring, when they established their home in this city.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Geraldine, aged two and one-half years, and her aged grandmother.

Mrs. Anderson was a member of the First church of this city, and lived a consistent Christian life. It is a sad circumstance that she left her little daughter to be reared by other hands just as her mother left her near the same age.

Brief funeral service was held at the home Monday at 10:30 a. m., conducted by Rev. Joseph Sopher. Interment took place in the cemetery in Rock Creek township.
