DEATH OF MEMBER OF S. A. T. C.

Marcus Blatt of What Cheer Dies at the City Hospital Wednesday Evening.

The death of Marcus David Blatt, a member of the Grinnell S. A. T. C., took place at the city hospital at 6:10 p. m., Wednesday. He was taken sick Friday with the flu, which soon developed into pneumonia. He was taken to the hospital Tuesday.

The young man was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blatt of What Cheer. He was born there May 23, 1900, and lived at home until he entered the S. A. T. C. last fall. His father and mother, brother and sister arrived here and saw their loved one before he passed away.

The body was taken to What Cheer this morning.
