

Jackson, Gertrude

GH 10/15/1918

DEATH OF GERTRUDE JACKSON

Death Occurs Saturday Last—Soldier
Father Arrives Too Late to See
Daughter Alive.

Charles Jackson was summoned home from Camp Pike last Friday on account of the serious illness of his little baby, Gertrude. The little one-year-old girl died, however, long before his arrival at 10:30 Saturday forenoon. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Simon Monday morning conducted by Rev. M. J. Hannon. The little girl had been dangerously ill for nearly a week but she was given the best of care and her recovery was hoped for. The parents have the sincere sympathy of every one in the community. It was a sad home-coming for a brave soldier boy.