GH 11/5/1918

ANDREW McILRATH NICHOLL.

Andrew McIlrath Nicholl was born in County Antrim, Ireland, July 12th, 1886. Came to Iowa with the family when four years of age; passed away at Sacred Heart Hospital, Spokane, Wash., Oct. 24, 1918, of typhoid-pneumonia, after a short illness. Everything that those here, who loved him so dearly, could do, was done.

The body reached Gilman Tuesday evening, October 29th, where Andrew was laid at rest Wednesday afternoon, October 30th. The pallbearers were six cousins.

On account of quarantine restrictions a private funeral was held, conducted by Rev. Mr. Woodburn, of the Presbyterian church of Grinnell. Mrs. Woodburn and son, sang "My Father Knows"; and "We Shall Gather at the River."

Andrew attended public school near Gilman, and was a student in Grinnell high school for a time.

He liked the climate of the West best, and has spent most of the past ten years there, farming at Geddes, South Dakota, and was recently employed in the shipbuilding yards at Everett, Washington.

Besides his father and mother Andrew leaves one brother, J. R. Nicholl, of Gilman, and four sisters, Mrs. John Madill of Newburg, Mrs. D. H. Craven and Mrs. Ralph Rutherford, Grinnell, and Mrs. Raymond Pepoon of Geddes, South Dakota.
